So Runs a Ledger Item in Report of Chinese Society Treasurer Investigation Starts.

artments, against whom charges of or the list of names furnished the sonil who have been branded officially as nevolutionists. For that reason the olony is deeply interested in the few binese characters which appear in a and no stones will be left unturned intil it is ascertained just how that noney was used, or why it had to be isci in police circles at all.

Treasurer Was Arrested.

The treasurer of the society was arested a short time before the report was made and was haled before the solve magistrate. He was not the only me who was caught in the police dragnet and charged with gambling, and it s presumed that the author of the reto have led the police to their gambling room, and that steps were taken to get im off the force. At all events, on the ifficial treasurer's report to his society which contains the names of many prominent Chinese, appears this item: "For procuring the discharge of oline officer, $150.

Whether the money was used as a part of a fund to combat the efforts of the police in suppressing gumbling, or was actually used to bribe a higher- the police officials at the police station. Standmother, and all appeared before up to fire an officer subordinate, does and on Thursday afternoon he is alleged Judge Matthewman, where the Governor not appear.

All Interpretations Alike.

In order to satisfy himself that the were agreed that it meant for procurng the discharge of a police officer, for ich $150 was recorded.

Then the breasurer was sent for and fire some hesitation, that it referred matters connected with he revoluionary party. But after some discuson with Mr. Breckons he was elenrly user led.

Alii the Discharged Man.

Aid, a former Chinese police officer, time was Jack Kalakiela, afterwards deposed, and now drawing a salary of arraged a month after Ahi 's discharge, of under another chief.
